

Karim Farah

Senior Architect Dar Al Handasah

15 Omar Street, Mohandessin, Giza
Cairo, Egypt
Business Phone: +2 02 33449680
Cell Phone: +2 010 1740748
karim.farah@dargroup.com

LEED FACULTY SINCE

April 2009

LEED Projects/Involvement:

LEED coordinator for 27 LEED registered projects seeking Certified, Silver and Gold levels in Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Bahrain, Riyadh and Jeddah. These projects include Airport terminal, Academic campus, Hospital, Research Facility, Library, Conference Center, School, Sports Facility, Housing, Office Buildings and Mosque
All projects are registered with the USGBC

USGBC Chapter/Affiliation Involvement:

Dar Al-Handasah primary contact with the USGBC, Attended Green Build in Chicago 2007 and Boston 2008

Professional Memberships:

Egyptian Syndicate of Engineers, 1994
LEED Accredited Professional, 2007

Personal Narrative:

Karim Farah is a Senior Architect with Dar Al-Handasah ranked 3rd International Design Firm in General Building in 2009 by McGraw Hill Construction, Engineering News Record. The firm has more than 3750 professional Architect and Engineer working in 45 branches in 26 countries.

A LEED AP since 2007 Karim has been the leader in advancing the culture of Green Building within the Company. He is involved in the Design and coordination of a number of high profile Green Projects in the region. Karim is also actively contributing in the establishment of Egypt Green Building Council